

I listen to K-Love all the time--it's the only station I listen to. K-Love has positive, uplifting programming that is soothing and inspiring. K-Love is in the public interest because so much of the other programming on other stations is negative and irritating.